"Never Again Will One Generation of Veterans Abandon Another"

Chapter turnout for our Veteran's Day Ceremony on November 11th was fantastic and demonstrated to our community how important our veterans are to us. Moreover, it was an honor to speak for the chapter, and to listen to eloquent speeches from VFW Commander, Dennis Bielskis, and VFW Ladies Auxiliary President, Shirley Caldwell. As usual, Rick Ciaramitaro and the Color Guard members did their normal outstanding job as did Rich Mazurkiewicz with the playing of Taps.

A warm "Thank You" to VFW Post 6695 for hosting a delicious chili, hotdog luncheon after the ceremony. November is also our time to enjoy our families and friends with Thanksgiving Day festivities before we face a very busy, but fun-filled December. If chapter members ever wanted to get involved in voluntary activities, December is your month! We start with volunteers needed to help the VFW sell Christmas trees. Each year is better than the last as the word is out in the community that we have the best deals anywhere! Also, we ring bells for the Salvation Army, we have Children's and Adult Christmas parties, we have a Kohl's sponsored Clothing Drive for our homeless veterans, and we visit hospitalized veterans at the VA facility in Ann Arbor. As you can see, the need for volunteers is extensive. Please help where and when you can.

Our last ceremony for the year is a tribute to our World War II veterans on Pearl Harbor Day, December 7, 2013 at 1:00 p.m. at the Plymouth Memorial Park.

2013 has been a phenomenal year with us doing many great things for many great people and organizations. You should all be very proud of your achievements throughout the year. I know that I am grateful for your accomplishments and continued support. You make being your chapter president very easy for me, as well as one of my greatest lifetime achievements. May you and your families and friends have a warm and wonderful Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!

Salvation Army Bell Ringing Winter Clothing Drive

It is time to start thinking about our annual Christmas activities.

Our Chapter will be doing the Salvation Army Bell Ringing at Sam's Club on Ford Road in Canton (same as last year), on Saturday, December 7th from 10 AM until 8 PM. We still need volunteers for the last few hours. Please, get in touch with me if you are able to volunteer.

We are also taking part in our 8th Annual Winter Clothing Drive for the Detroit Veterans Center which will be held during the first three weeks of December.

The Fallen Heroes of Plymouth-Canton

Our first Fallen Hero is Corporal Richard L. Nowry. He served in the U.S. Marine Corps. Chapter 528's 2nd V.P. Leroy Paige has undertaken the responsibility and honor of finding Heroes from the Plymouth-Canton area. Every other month we will publish in our newsletter the name and photo of a local hero. In addition, all photos will be placed on our chapter's newest web page - www.vva528.org/fallfallenheroesofplymcanton.html. Included on the web page and under each service photo will be a hyper-linked fact page for each hero which Leroy obtained by using the Virtual Wall.

HALLOWEEN PARTY

October 26 saw a preponderance of witches at the Halloween party....hmmmm but only one Unabomber! Everyone had a surprisingly good time and we're looking forward to next year.

TROOP SHIPPING

On November 21 we shipped another 13 boxes of requested items to the troops of HHT, 3rd Squadron, 2nd Cav Regiment in Afghanistan. Thanks to Jim Hodgson, Don McLane, Al Sneath and his Mom, and Janet Nippa who helped out Nancy and I that day. Thanks to all who donated cash as well as items going to the troops since it cost $14.85 per box shipped, total $193.05. If you have a son/daughter, grandson/grand daughter, niece/nephew who is deployed overseas and might like some stateside support, get us a name and address and we'll be sure to get a package sent to them. Remember what it was like getting a package from home back in the day?

VETERANS GOLF DAY

We have been weathered out for the year. See everyone next spring.

VETERAN'S DAY

A very nice ceremony at Veteran's Memorial Park in downtown Plymouth, followed by a snack at the Post. Mostly everyone then dined at one or more of the local restaurants sponsoring Veteran's Day with a free dining experience.

PEARL HARBOR DAY

"A day that will live in infamy" will be celebrated at Veterans Memorial Park in downtown Plymouth with a ceremony at 1:00PM. This is the day that thrust America into WWII and forever changed the world.

CHILDREN'S CHRISTMAS PARTY

For the first time in many years, we will hold a children's Christmas party December 8 from 1-4PM.

Children 12 and under are welcomed but you must have alerted Patty Bielskis ahead of time as to how many and what ages of the children.

ANN ARBOR VAMC CHRISTMAS PARTY

Our usual trek to the Ann Arbor VAMC for the patient Veterans Christmas visit will take place on Tuesday December 17. Meet in the lobby at 5:30PM and along with Chapter 310 and others, we will attempt to bring a little joy to the folks who served our country but who may spend the holidays in the hospital. See you there.

Attention Vietnam Vets!

Every veteran has a story. We want to hear yours! The Plymouth Historical Museum in conjunction with the Veteran's History Project is currently accepting reservations for veterans who would like their story to be told and kept for posterity. It will only take an hour or two of your time to come down to the Plymouth Historical Museum in downtown Plymouth where your story will be videotaped. You will receive a copy of your interview (DVD) as a keepsake.

As the World War II generation passes on it is up to the Vietnam vets to come forward and tell it like it was. No matter what MOS or job you had it will be of interest to future generations. We would like to get as many Vietnam vet stories as possible but not to the exclusion of WWII and Korean War veterans. All are welcome.

In recent years I have interviewed over 50 veterans (mostly WWII) at the Plymouth Historical Museum and each one is a gem. I have interviewed cooks, electricians, truck drivers, clerks, soldiers, sailors, airmen as well as a few war workers. Each story was unique, interesting and another footnote to history. Do not pass this chance up and call me at the Museum @ (734) 455-8940 to reserve an interview date. If I am not in when you call please leave your name and phone number with the Museum staff. Thank you for your service.

Dreams of Childhood

From Our Daily Bread
Author: Randy Kilgore

Years ago, I asked fifth-grade students to prepare a list of questions to ask Jesus if He were to show up in person the following week. I also asked groups of adults to do the same thing.

The results were startlingly different! The kids' questions ranged from adorable to poignant: "Will we have to sit around in robes and sing all day in heaven? Will my puppy be in heaven? Were the whales in or out of the ark? How's my grandpa doing up there with You?" Almost without fail, their questions were free from doubt that heaven existed or that God acts supernaturally.

Adults, on the other hand, featured a completely different line of questioning: "Why do bad things happen to good people? How do I know You're listening to my prayers? Why is there only one way to heaven? How could a loving God let this tragedy happen to me?"

For the most part, children live life unfettered by the cares and sorrows that burden adults. Their faith lets them trust God more readily. While we adults often get lost in trials and sorrows, children retain the psalmist's view of life – an eternal perspective that sees the greatness of God (Psalms 8:1-2).

God can be trusted, and He longs for us to trust Him the way children do (Matthew 18:3)

"An intimate walk with God lifts our eyes from today's trials and into eternity's triumphs."

As Thanksgiving approaches us, I ask that you count your blessings. We all have them! Our blessings could be having family nearby or loved ones, friends that will look out for you, health, our food and shelter. We all have these! Thank God for what you have. Is the glass half empty, or half full? Only you can answer that.

SERVICE FLAGS

A SERVICE FLAG OR SERVICE BANNER in the United States is an official banner that family members of service members can display. The flag or banner is defined as a white field with a red border, with a blue star for each family member serving in the Armed Forces of the United States during any period of war or hostilities in which the Armed Forces of the United States are engaged. A gold star (with a blue edge) represents a family member that died during service, without specifying cause of death. The deceased might have been killed in action, or died due to unrelated causes.

The banner was designed in 1917 by United States Army Captain Robert L. Queisser of the 5th Ohio Infantry, in honor of his two sons who were serving in World War I. It was quickly adopted by the public and by government officials. On September 24, 1917, an Ohio congressman read into the Congressional Record: The mayor of Cleveland, the Chamber of Commerce and the Governor of Ohio has adopted this service flag. The world should know of those who give so much for liberty. The dearest thing in the entire world to a father and mother are their children.

These flags were first used in World War I, with subsequent standardization and codification by the end of World War II. They were not popular during the Vietnam War, but have come back into use. In modern usage, an organization may fly a service flag if one of its members is serving active duty.

Manufacture of these flags is only by specific government license in the territories under American jurisdiction. The same section of the United States Code that limits manufacture of the banner also mentions lapel pins. There is no legal specification of the banner's size, but according to the DoD code; the flag size ratio must be 10:19, the same as the Flag of the United States. When displayed with the national flag, the latter should take the place of honor. If the flags displayed differ in size, the national flag should be larger.

Blue and gold are the only colors specified for use, but some say silver stars are customary for those discharged from service because of wounds or being invalided home. The Silver Star

Families of America is an organization attempting to encourage the U.S. Congress to make the silver star service banner official for those wounded or injured in a war zone. 49 states, Guam, Saipan, and the U.S. Virgin Islands, the Chickasaw Nation and over 2,700 cities and counties have issued proclamations in support of the Silver Star Banner and of Silver Star Service Banner Day on May 1 of every year.

On April 21, 2010 the United States House of representatives passed House Resolution 855, a stand alone resolution recognizing the Silver Star Service Banner and making May 1 Silver Star Service Banner Day. One state, Missouri, took steps to make such recognition a state law.
