The Fishing Derby June 13th was a lot of fun. It was neat to hear the squeals from the kids when they caught a fish. And the calls to dad to get the fish off the hook! This was the 20th year the Chapter has partnered with Wayne County Parks and Recreation for this event. A big thank you to Tom Brown and the Chapter members who helped with the fish weighing and measurement , recording of information, the casting contest and policing to make sure the rules were followed.

The Plymouth 4th of July parade starts at 9:00 AM and forms up on Theodore St by the RxR tracks then marches down Main Street past Wing Street. I suggest we car pool from the VFW Post at 8:00 AM.

The Sportmen's raffle met the 1,500 ticket sale minimum. All ticket sales now add to the money we need to fund the veterans assistance programs and community charities. We have about three months left before the raffle, so help is needed to staff the selling locations. The location sign-up sheet will be at the membership meeting and emailed out.

The Monday morning golf group is having a lot of fun. We golf at a different golf course each week. Format is a 3-4 person scrambles, so golfers of all skill levels are welcome. Each team is led by a skilled golfer.

Digger's Desk

CARCRUZ

The Wednesday night car shows have begun and out of the first six Wednesdays, we have had only one near perfect night. Perfect night translation: 79-81 degrees, 5 mph breeze and no clouds from Plymouth to Port Huron. Judging by the beer sales since I am the bartender, we have sold in order 99, 72, 64, 156, 103 and 53 cans of beer. Guess which was the near perfect night. Come on down and enjoy a burger, a liquid refreshment, classic car and good 60's music.

MEMORIAL DAY PARADE

Remembering those who made the ultimate sacrifice. Another huge and appreciative hometown audience. The SOS at the Post following the parade wasn't bad either.

MONDAY GOLF

We have golfed at 46 different courses since 2013 and this year the weather has treated us well. If you are interested in golfing in a scrambles format, contact me and I'll put you on the weekly e-mail list.

JUNE 29, 1968

This date is special in my life as it represents the date that I was freed from my tour of SE Asia. The plane leaving Bien Hoa Airport at 11:15PM that night had brought in a fresh batch of FNG's who were ready to kick ass and take names in a war that none of us wanted but were patriotically obliged to take part in. These fellows were giving away their saucer caps to us who were wearing garrison caps prior to boarding the freedom bird heading back to the land of the big PX. Most of us said nothing to those just arriving but going through everyone's mind was the same thought, i.e., "You guys are in a world of shit for the next 12 months and you don't even know it". When we reached I don't know what altitude, the captain announced we had left Vietnam air space and the planeload of GI's erupted in a cheer. On to Japan, quick stop. On to Alaska, quick stop. On to Oakland, landing at 2:00AM, kissing the ground (asphalt actually) in a ritual we felt compelled to honor. After several hours in a gym getting measured for new summer green uniforms, polishing our brass, trying to catch some sleep (didn't happen), we were released on leave....I skipped the steak dinner or whatever they were serving....too excited. Several of us took a cab around the bay to San Francisco International Airport and awaited our flights...standby of course. I had a beer in the airport with Larry Fritz from our mortar platoon who returned home to ND where he resides to this day. As an interesting sidebar, years later Larry confided in me that the first black person he ever encountered in his life was in basic training....wow! SF to Chicago and running through the aisles to my connecting flight to Detroit. I arrived at Detroit Metro at 10:00PM on June 30, 1968. When I stepped off the plane wearing my long sleeved poplin shirt and summer green dress uniform, it was still 88 degrees. I was totally comfortable. When I disembarked, everyone was crying....except for my Dad who had started celebrating my arrival a bit early and fell asleep in the car. I was back in the world. Don was home and safe and everything was right with the world. "Welcome Home Sarge" said the banner my sister had made and displayed across the front of our parents' house. This was the happiest day of my life, bar none, to this day. Welcome home indeed!

I'll see you at the July meeting. It's a great time to be a Veteran.

Tom Brown

Fish On For Freedom held it's inaugural event in Ludington, MI as a token of thanks from the community for all veterans. Three members of our Chapter - Don McLane, Gene Spurgess and Tom Brown took part in this wonderful event. After fishing for six hours all 15 charter boats with 60 veterans of all ages lined up as we entered Ludington's harbor. Hundreds of people along the harbor waved flags, banners and gave us a standing ovation. It was just as humbling as when we march at our annual Memorial Day parade. See page 10 for more photos.

July 4th

The chapter will again participate in the Plymouth parade on the fourth of July. As we did last year we will all walk behind our chapter banner.

We will meet in the parking lot of Bode's Restaurant on Main Street near the railroad tracks. The parade starts at 9:00 so you should plan on being there by 8:30 at the latest. Everyone is invited to join in.

The VFW will be selling chicken dinners that day starting at noon so if you don't want to cook stop by and pick one up. They only do 150 so come early so you don't miss out. They are delicious and are modestly priced.

Chaplain's Corner

The Eternal Sales Call

TGIF Today Is First
Volume 2 by OS Hillman

"That if you confess with your mouth, 'Jesus is Lord,' and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved" (Rom 10:9).

"I received the phone call from the technology CEO. It was our second conversation. He began receiving my TGIF devotional a few weeks earlier, compliments of his mother-in-law. Each day he read the daily message and found that it really helped him.

He felt his technology product might have some application to my ministry. I asked about how he had started getting the devotional. As he told me his story, I could tell he probably did not know the Lord personally. So, I inquired further with a few more leading questions. Gradually he changed the subject to his product. We discussed the product for twenty minutes or so. He was about to conclude our conversation when I asked, "Could we go back to our original conversation? Tell me more about your spiritual journey and where you feel you are? He told me of his background in which he was raised in a particular Christian tradition. I shared how Christ came not to give us a religion but to have a personal relationship with us.

Eventually I asked my friend, "What do you think keeps you from making such a commitment?" "Well, quite frankly, I am a controller. I feel that I can't let go of control. I fear what might happen." I appreciated his honesty.

We discussed this at length and I helped him understand that every person has a control issue to overcome. However, Christ requires us to give up control in order to give us real life. It is the great paradox of faith in Christ. I said, "So, now that we have dealt with that issue, is there any reason you would not be prepared to make that commitment to Christ?" "Well, now that you put it that way, no, I guess there isn't," he responded.

Bill prayed with me over the phone to invite Jesus to be Lord over his life, not just his Savior. What he intended to be a typical sales call became a call for eternity.

Perhaps there will be an opportunity today to see your work as an opportunity to share the love of Christ with someone who is waiting to receive salvation through you."

Chaplain's notes: I read the above article about two weeks ago, and saved it. OS Hillman was able to ask this man for a decision on trusting Christ and not himself, in order to invite Jesus to be Lord over his life! This man escaped living his eternal life away from God, and instead, has assurance that he will be in heaven, in the very midst of the Savior of the world, Jesus, and God the Father.

Please keep VVA member Ken Winkler in your prayers(cancer), as well as Joe Tebor's sister experiencing cancer, prayers for Bob and Ruth Lamoureux in the recent death of Ruth's mother, and other unspoken requests by so many of our members!

Wayne County Fishing Derby Winner

4th Annual Golfers Against Diabetes & Cancer Golf Outing.

I want to thank everyone who participated in this year's outing, where we raised $3,175, which will be used to fight these terrible diseases. $1,625 will be donated to the American Cancer Society and $1,550 to the American Diabetes Association.

I hope everyone enjoyed the day. We had 48 Golfers and 20 Hole Sponsors this year, which is the largest amount of golfers and we hope to continue to grow this Outing. The four Outings combined have now raised over $12,000.

Congratulations go out to the winning group of Steve, Gary, Kevin and Ward, who shot a 63!!!! And congratulations go out to all of the contest and prize winners on the course and at the luncheon.

The 5th Annual Golfers Against Diabetes & Cancer Golf Outing is scheduled for Saturday, May 21, at the Links of Gateway Golf Course in Romulus.

Best regards,

John Fleming
