Plymouth-Canton, MI

1426 Mill St. Plymouth, MI 48170

Ron King

President's Corner

Greetings,

According to the calendar, Spring arrives this month, however, we will have to wait and see this year! It has not been a typical Winter by any standards.

The bright spot for March is the beginning of our annual Fish Fries, starting on March 7, 2014. Fortunately we have many members who give unselfishly to this much anticipated VFW sponsored event. Moreover, there are many areas that need volunteers, so if you can help out, it will be greatly appreciated.

Also, March is your second opportunity to get involved with the chapter's leadership by either being nominated or nominating yourself for a board or committee position. The final election is held at the April Business meeting.

Please continue to search for veterans organizations that are in need of help and assistance where we can lend a helping hand or a donation.

The members are the backbone of any organization, because they set the pace for how much or how little involvement is put forth. In our case, we must be a super organization because our members only know one speed when it comes to helping others and getting involved—Full speed ahead! Your enthusiasm and “Can-Do” attitude always puts us over the top on everything we do. VVA Chapter 528 is AWESOME!

Thank You for all you do.

Ron King, President

Recovery Squadron

ELECTIONS

Continuing with the March meeting, the Nominating Committee will be taking nominations for all officer and BOD positions. If you have the urge to serve your Chapter in a close up, more intense and satisfying way, have someone nominate you or nominate yourself for one of these positions. It is rewarding. If not an elected position, then get involved in any one of a number of other ways. You will enjoy it. That is an order !

AGENT ORANGE TOWN HALL MEETING

Bob Dew, Dennis Waling and the rest of their committee are bringing about this event within a limited period of time. Speakers have been secured, the agenda set and sponsors have been approached. If you have a company in mind with the potential of being a sponsor at any level, contact Bob Dew for the forms and personally deliver them to the tentative sponsor. The event will take place on April 26 at Northville High School on Six Mile Road. Stay tuned for more details.

SPORTSMAN'S RAFFLE

The 2014 version of VVA's biennial sportsman's raffle has been postponed until 2015 for a number of reasons. If you need it, there should a letter of explanation available to accompany a refund for tickets already sold.

FISH FRY'S

Starting on March 7, every Friday in Lent, up to and including Good Friday on April 18, will have us hosting our city wide renowned fish fry. Here is an opportunity to help out or just come down and enjoy the dinner.

There are a lot of worthwhile things happening in the Chapter. I hope to see you at the March meeting. Don't forget to sign in. It's a great time to be a Veteran.

The Eleventh Hour

From Our Daily Bread

Author: Dennis Fisher

World War I has been ranked by many as one of the deadliest conflicts in human history. Millions lost their lives in the first global modern war.

On November 11, 1918, a ceasefire was observed on the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month. During that historic moment, millions around the world observed moments of silence while they reflected upon the war's terrible cost – the loss of life and suffering. It was hoped that “the Great War”, as it was called, would truly be “the war that would end all war.”

Despite the many deadly military conflicts that have followed, the hope for lasting peace has not faded. And promise that someday wars will finally end.

When Christ returns, Isaiah's prophecy will come true: “Nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war anymore” (Isaiah 2:4). Then the eleventh hour will pass and the first hour of lasting peace in a new heaven and new earth will begin.

Until that day comes, those who follow Christ are to be people who represent the Prince of Peace in the way we conduct our lives and in the way we make a difference in our world.

Chaplain's notes: The book of Isaiah, written by one of God's chosen prophets around 800 BC (800 years Before Christ' birth), is filled with prophecy about the coming Messiah for the people of Israel, and his prophecy proved true and was indeed fulfilled in Christ's life. With Isaiah's credibility, there is no reason to not believe that peace will come to the world, when Christ returns to our earth.

Prayers for: John Bresnahan and his sons with the loss of Barbara, Dennis Mozdzen and family with the loss of his mother, the family of AVVA member Bob Irwin, who passed away on February 9, Ken Winkler who will have a series of tests early March to see if his brain cancer is gone, Gary “Ouch” Boucher recovering from a knee replacement. I apologize if I have left anyone out. I am only as good as the information I am receiving!!

Great Food & Great Company At The Plymouth VFW

Posted by Bryan Bentley (Editor), Plymouth-Canton Patch - Suggested by Gary Kubik - February 23, 2014

Since I took a more active role here at Patch, I have had the opportunity to meet some really nice people, but none better than the folks at our Plymouth VFW Post 6695, which is also home to the Vietnam Veterans of America Chapter 528.

I had a conversation with Gary (Bear) Kubik, who is the VFW Lounge Manager and Post Advocate, about some of the upcoming events they were having. I was interested in posting them at Patch. He kindly informed me that the Ladies Auxiliary was hosting a Soup and Salad Dinner on the 22nd, for $5.00. This sounded like a good event to share with Patch readers, so I asked more questions.

At some point I think he invited me to attend, but on second thought, I may have invited myself. He happened to mention two words that kind of sealed the deal for me. He uttered the words "bake sale" and for me, that was all it took. Soup and salad are good, but baked goods are great!

Not only was I going to put out the word at Patch, but I made plans to attend. I had never been to one of these events at the VFW, and having the amount of respect that I have for the men and women who have served our country, I thought it was high time that I met these folks. Did I mention that they had homemade baked goods?

So I basically expected 4 or 5 different kinds of soups, and a few salads, which for 5 bucks, is a pretty good deal. Being the kind of guy that I am, I did not have a bite to eat all day. I intended to try each of the homemade soups available, and in my humble opinion, it's always best to approach these things with an empty stomach.

I was not prepared for what we saw when we walked into that room. It was crock pot heaven! My knees actually went a bit weak. Rochelle grabbed my arm, and told me to take some deep breaths.

We were not talking 4 or 5 soups here, we were staring smack dab at 15 or 20 different kinds of soup, with close to 10 different salads. There were two tables filled with baked goodies as well, for a buck a pop.

I thought I'd died and gone to heaven. I was brought back to reality with Rochelle whispering in my ear to pace myself, and quit drooling. On one wall was soup, on another salads, a look to the right was all the baked goods, and if I wanted an ice cold beer, there were two of America's finest manning the bar. Yep, that was my first impression of the Plymouth VFW.

I am going to put my food critic hat on for a minute, and say this. It doesn't matter where you went for dinner on Saturday night, you did not get better food than I did, and I don't care what you paid. There was no restaurant in this county that had 20 of the best homemade soups & salads that the women of the Ladies Auxiliary can cook for you. Did I mention that this was all for $5.00?

All that I can say, is that the next time I make an announcement about a dinner at the Plymouth VFW, you would be wise to take my advice, and go enjoy a great meal. And if you don't? More for me.

You will get a great meal at the Plymouth VFW, but that is not all. You will get a chance to meet some of the nicest people around. Rochelle and I walked in as strangers, and we walked out as friends with some very fine people. We were made to feel welcome the minute we walked in the door. Most folks had a story to share, or a joke to tell, and all had a smile for us.

We would like to thank Bear, Judy (who organized this event), and the rest of the gang, for making us feel so welcome.

So in closing, I would just say that if you ever want to have a great meal with some of our nation's heroes, attend an event at the Plymouth VFW Post 6695. You'll walk away with a full belly, and a few more friends than you had before you arrived...

Spoiler Alert: Friday Night Fish Fries are on the horizon!

RUNNING FOR THE BOARD AND CHAPTER OFFICERS

Now is the time for all Vietnam Veterans to come to aid of their chapter. I'm speaking of putting your name on the ballot for the Board and/or Officers for the coming 2014/2015 year. This is not a hard, demanding job. There are no filibusters, no shut downs, no lobbyists hounding you, you don't have to kiss any babies and you don't have to reach across the aisle to get a motion passed. That being said, please consider running for one of the positions of office. It's a great way to be involved in the chapter. Each year it seems that the same people are nominated and run for positions. I've been in the chapter since 1995 and have seen the same faces for several years serve in many of the positions available. How about stepping up this time to serve others again as we did some 50 years ago. One thing is for sure; you don't have to feel helpless when you are elected to an office for there are many members who will very more than helpful to get you up to speed. All you have to do is just ask. I myself would like to see some new faces on the board and as officers. Let's give the guys who have really been busting their hinnies for so many years, a well-deserved break. I would like to thank everyone in advance for taking this commitment under consideration. Make sure you show up on election night to vote for your favorite candidate.

CRUZ'N 528

While I'm on the subject of volunteering, let's talk car shows. As all of you may know it won't be long before the car show season is here and CRUZ'N 528 will begin its 10th season of Wednesday Night Cars Shows to benefit area veterans. You don't need to own a classic car to be part of the best weekday car shows in the area. What we do need are volunteers to help out at the shows. These jobs are not tough; they don't require using huge amounts of gray cell matter, just a willingness to be part of the function. The shows are only three hours long and with enough volunteers available most only work about 30 to 45 minutes total. The rest of the time is spent perusing the show. There's good food, lots of friendly faces, great oldies playing, 50/50 and door prizes. This is another great way to help out the chapter and see some great looking rides at the same time. Oh! Did I mention that this is a family show as well, so bring the grandkids, the wife, your neighbors and friends, so they can see one of the many ways that the chapter helps out Veterans. So why not pencil in Wednesday nights from 5 to 8, starting May 21st and be part of another great cause that the chapter is involved in. See you at the show.

The Bear's Den

Well, March is upon us. St. Patrick's Day, Fish Fry Time and more nominations for the Chapter Officers.

Come in and have some Corned Beef starting at noon on Monday the 17th. There will be a lot of GREEN that day. We do not know the prices yet, but will keep them as low as possible. A lot of the members really like the special draft beer and it is selling well. Hope to have a special on meeting Monday (Leslie's choice).

Bring in that new member! This is the only way we can increase our membership and have some more help for all of the great projects that we conduct.

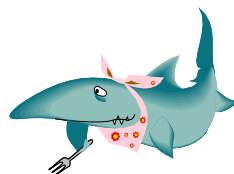

Hopefully, the snow will be gone before the car shows start. It must be gone for the Easter Bunny to hide eggs out doors. On "Opening Day" for the Tigers we will have free hot dogs in the lounge during the game - all are welcome!

I've heard something about another DERBY PARTY with the hats and ties. Stop by and see the smaller bear or call with any comments.

Thanks and keep a zero bubble.
